

We love being able to come home every night after a long day at work and not have to answer the phone all night from people trying to sell us stuff that we have not solicited. Please do not change the current rulings and take away our peace and quite.